We are looking to appoint Teaching Assistants to join our school community. We are seeking to appoint good communication who are friendly and approachable, and who are willing to learn new ways of working with children with special needs. We are looking for colleagues who strive for high standards of themselves and will help us safeguard children's wellbeing, and enable them to enjoy school life, thrive and achieve their very best. The successful applicants will require a NVQ2 for Teaching Assistants qualification or equivalent qualifications or experience.

The successful applicant will:

- Enjoy working with children in a school environment and understand that the children are central to all decision making, upon which your role has an impact.
- Be committed to safeguarding and protecting children.
- Be able to work effectively as a team member, under direction and independently.
- Be confident, respectful, and credible, and exude high standards.
- Be supportive to the school team.
- Be intuitive, caring and maintain high regard for confidentiality at all times.
- Be a calm, effective communicator, confident in liaising with all colleagues, children and parents.
- Be willing to undertake professional development.

Ickburgh School can offer you:

- Continued professional development
- A strong professional team of enthusiastic staff to work alongside you within a supportive and constructive ethos.
